ANECDOTE.

MR. Wilkes, when a very young man, was candidate for the town of Berwick upon Tweed, and not being returned, preferred a petition to the Houſe of Commons. Mr. Campbell accepted a retaining fee of fifty guineas in this cauſe. Juſt before it was to come on in the Houſe, Mr. Campbell ſent word that he could not plead. Mr. Wilkes waited on him, expoſtulated, remonſtrated,—in vain ——Mr. Campbell could not plead; nor could he return the money; but told Mr. Wilkes the law was open, to which recourſe might be had.

"No, Sir, replied Mr. Wilkes, I was weak enough to give you a fee; but I am not ſuch a fool as to go to law with you: for I perceive my whole fortune may be waſted in retaining fees alone, before I ſhall be able to find one that can plead for me. I have brought my advocate with me; therefore—Draw,—for before I quit this room, I will have my money or ſatisfaction." Mr. Wilkes had his money, inſtead of the faithful and able Advocate which he wanted, and which he would have found, had Mr. Campbell been DISINTERESTED.

June 18. A war is again talked of by many of our politicians as utterly unavoidable.

'Tis generally thought that ſome great names are at the bottom of the libels which have been lately publiſhed on our Courts of Judicature.

June 21. We are informed that on Sunday laſt there were not fewer than 100 coaches which brought viſitors to the King's Bench Priſon.

During the trial for printing the Eſſay on Woman, Mr. Kearſly declared in Court, that Mr. Wilkes could not have the leaſt intention of publiſhing that poem, as he only deſired a very few copies to be printed for his particular friends. When he was aſked by Mr. Wilkes's council how the letters (which were then read and ſworn to be Mr. Wilkes's hand writing, by Jonathan Scott) were obtained, he declared they were forcibly taken off his file, and out of his bureau, by the King's meſſengers, when they executed the GENERAL WARRANT; but as the court ſeemed not to recollect that circumſtance on Tueſday laſt, when the errors in the proceedings were argued, Mr. Kearſly made an affidavit of it the next morning, which was laid before the judges, prior to Mr. Wilkes's receiving ſentence.

They write from Gibraltar, that a rupture with the emperor of Morocco was thought to be unavoidable.

On Monday Mr. Nares moved for an attachment againſt the printer of a daily paper, for publiſhing Mr. Wilkes's Addreſs to the Gentlemen, Clergy, and Freeholders of the county of Middleſex, as he apprehended that the ſame tended to inflame the jury of the county, before whom the cauſe was to be tried. The court aſked him, Whether he made that motion on behalf of the Attorney-General? which he averring, the Addreſs was read, but the court refuſed the attachment.

It is rumoured at the weſt end of the town, that a certain perſon will ſoon receive a free pardon.

More than one eminent Lawyer have publickly declared, that a certain method of proceeding appears to them equally as unconſtitutional as general warrants.

June 25. Mr. Wilkes's brothers were at Court, and ſome other of the moſt ſtrenuous friends to that gentleman.

It is ſtrongly reported, that a new error is diſcovered in certain late proceedings againſt a popular gentleman, ſufficient of itſelf to ſet aſide the laſt part of the judgment thereon founded; by which if true, he may poſſibly take his ſeat next April.

June 28. The report of the day is, that one of the Royal Family will certainly pay a viſit to North-America this Summer, or early the next Spring.

June 30. It was this morning currently reported on the Royal Exchange, that the French court have actually threatened to attack Minorca, ſhould Great-Britain interfere with the French King's deſigns in Corſica.

They write from [illegible], that an expreſs had arrived there with advice, that the landing the French troops in Corſica had not been attended with the leaſt oppoſition on the part of the iſlanders.

His Majeſty has been pleaſed to appoint Lieut. Col. Herbert Münſter, late of the 60th regiment, Lieutenant Governor of the town and fortreſs of St. Philip in the iſland of Minorca, in the room of Colonel Mordaunt Cracherode, who has reſigned.

They write from Leghorn, that the Court of Verſailles had cauſed it to be intimated to General Paſchal de Paoli, that the very firſt attempt on his part to obſtruct the landing of the French troops on the iſland would be conſidered as a full declaration of war.

It is reported that three great commoners will ſhortly be called up to the houſe of peers.

It is rumoured that Mr George Grenville will ſoon be appointed to one of the firſt poſts in the adminiſtration.

It is ſaid that the queſtion, how far the Americans may be permitted to engage Britiſh Artificers to quit the kingdom, will be debated at the next meeting of an auguſt aſſembly.

July 2. No material changes or alterations in the Miniſtry will take place till the parliament meets for buſineſs, which is expected in November next.

Some very diſcerning Politicians pretend the French have taken poſſeſſion of Corſica, with the deſign of erecting it into a monarchy, for the Infant Duke of Parma, Grandſon of his Moſt Chriſtian Majeſty.

It is now ſaid that the D. of B. takes the lead in all public concerns.

Wedneſday Mr. Wilkes was preſented in the King's Bench, with an elegant medal of ſilver, having his own buſt on one ſide, and on the other the Genius of Liberty, with the Cap and Staff; underneath the latter, ELECTED KNIGHT OF THE SHIRE FOR MIDDLESEX, MDCCLXVIII, around it GENIUS OF LIBERTY.

July 5. The Utrecht Gazette, under the head London, June 14, has the following article: "Mr. Wilkes is not the only object of the frequent Councils held at Court, and at which the King very often aſſiſts. The new ſubjects of complaint of the Americans, who obſtinately refuſe to ſubmit to the impoſts laid on them in 1767; the ſending the French troops to Corſica; the troubles which agitate Poland, are among others the great objects which demand the attention of the miniſtry."

July 7. The unſtableneſs of the miniſtry, and the various opinions that are now propagated by the intereſted, is more conſpicuous than ever amongſt the great. The quartering a certain great perſon on the ſhoulders of an old placemen is not eaſily digeſted; few people now-a-days can bear voluntary incumbrances, much leſs conſent to a competitor in office, or a party in receiving the emoluments.

We are informed that a rupture has happened between two noblemen, which will open a ſcene in which the public is deeply intereſted.

On Sunday night the brother of a great perſonage paid a viſit to Mr. Wilkes in the King's Bench.

Extract of a letter from Leghorn, June 14.

"We have received advice from Corſica, that at the General Aſſembly held at Corte, it was reſolved to treat all thoſe as enemies who ſhould make any attempt againſt the liberty of the inhabitants of that kingdom, and to defend with vigour the rights of the country, which have been acquired by the blood of ſo many citizens. Purſuant to this reſolution all the inhabitants are forbidden, on pain of death, to furniſh with proviſions any of the places occupied by the French. The inhabitants of Capraia have likewiſe received orders not to lend their gondolas to the French; and General Paoli has promiſed the inhabitants his protection, and that of the whole nation, has ſent ſome detachments of troops to the coaſt, to watch the motions of the French. Theſe advices add, that the inhabitants of the iſland are ſo highly animated in the defence of their liberty, that the very women offer themſelves to fight againſt all thoſe who would endeavour to reduce them under the yoke of the Genoeſe."

It is rumoured that ſeveral men of war of the line will ſpeedily be put in commiſſion for an important expedition.

A report prevails, that a great perſon's intended tour to the Mediterranean is put off for the preſent.

When the French firſt raiſed the ſhameful report that General Paoli had conſented to their obtaining the ſovereignity of Corſica, Mr. Boſwell, after contradicting it from good authority, ſaid one day at court to a noble Duke; "My Lord ſuppoſing Paoli after all his heroiſm and noble exertions in the cauſe of liberty, ſhould become ſo abandoned as to give up his country, do you not think it would be lawful for me to go over and cut his throat?" "No, Sir, replied the Duke, but I think he ought to cut his own throat."

They write from Breſt, that the Calypſo frigate and four tranſport ſhips had juſt ſailed with artillery, troops, and ſtores, for the French ſettlement of Cayenne, in the Weſt-Indies.

July 12. A couritier enquiring lately of his friend what news? was anſwered, "none but what the papers afford." "papers (quoth the man of the place, with a ſupercilious ſneer) what ſignifies what they ſay, they never tell any thing but lies." "Lies!" replies the other with ſurpriſe! ſurely ſometimes a few truths, or perhaps they would not bite ſo cloſe.—This proved wormwood to honeſt Placebo, for the galled horſe winced, and the papers ſo much affected to be deſpiſed by the great (when they don't want them) have more than once ſaved this nation from deſtruction; and to them, perhaps, more than an odious military force, or the ſuperior wiſdom or ſagacity of miniſters and courtiers, is owing that the late diſturbances proceeded to no greater violence.

A great many ſailors, who belonged to the Dolphin, while lying at the new diſcovered iſland in the South Seas, cohabitted with the female natives of that place, who, it ſeems, were particularly fond of them, and ſhewed uncommon attachment for the ſmall gratification of a few gun nails, which are very uſeful in that country, for the men to make fiſh-hooks, &c. for catching fiſh. The men entertained no kind of jealouſy on that account, rather ſeemed pleaſed with our people for taking ſo much notice of their copper-complexioned ladies.

Letters frrm Briſtol mention, that a man who about thirty years ago went to ſea, leaving a wife and ſeveral children, is juſt returned thither; his wife, after his having been abſent two or three years not hearing from him, married another man, by whom ſhe had children; and he dying, ſhe afterwards married the third huſband, with whom ſhe lived near twenty years, when he alſo died; ſo that ſhe was in a ſuppoſed ſtate of widowhood when the firſt huſband returned after his long emigration, and they both appear perfectly happy.

It is ſaid, his Daniſh Majeſty on his arrival in England will aſſume no other title nor appear in any other character than that of a foreign nobleman.

PHILADELPHIA, September 1.

We are informed, that a gentleman in Virginia, has lately left, by his will, a handſome fortune to the patriotic author of the Farmer's letters, as a grateful-acknowledgment of the eminent ſervices thereby rendered to the Britiſh colonies on this continent.

Sunday laſt arrived here Capt. Wells from St. Croix, who informs, that in the night of the 18th ult. he had a ſudden and violent gale of wind, which laſted 5 hours; on the next evening, in lat. 36, long. 72, he ſaw a ſloop overſet and lying on her ſide, ſhe appeared to be Virginia built, with a ſharp bow, her quarter deck was blown up, but ſeem'd to have been between a roundhouſe and common quarter-deck; ſhe had a white bottom newly boot topp'd, black ſides, red ports, yellow ribbons and neat cranes; he imagines ſhe was lumber loaded, her jib was up a block, her boom unhung, but was faſt to the main ſheet. It's greatly to be feared, that the people all periſhed, as no boat could have lived, the ſea ran ſo high, even at the time Capt. Wells was near her.

Yeſterday arrived here Capt. Jones from Liſbon, and brought in 8 people, who belonged to the ſhip Earl of Hartford, Capt. Pym, from the Iſle of May.

* The News of which arrived next Day.

there to be kept under Confinement until the forementioned Acts are repealed.

Subscribed by nearly all the Merchants and Traders in Town.

☞ The Resolves agreed to, and subscribed by the Mechanicks and other Inhabitants of this City, (which correspond with these of the Merchants, &c.) will be in our next.

On Saturday Morning last, his Excellency Governor FRANKLIN, who arrived here a few Days ago, embarked on board a Sloop for Albany, accompanied by the Honourable Frederic Smyth, Esq: Chief Justice of New-Jersey, and Capt. John Skinner of Amboy, in order to be present at the very important Treaty which is soon to be held with the Indian Nations, for settleing a general Boundary Line between them and these Colonies—We hear that the Treaty is to be held at Fort-Stanwix, in the Country of the Six Nations, about the Middle of this Month, and that a very great Body of Indians are expected to be assembled there on this Occasion.

The same Day, Madam Walton, of this City, departed this Life, in the 90th Year of her Age.

Saturday last Mr. Joris Brinkerhoff of this City, departed this Life in a very advanced Age, a Gentleman well esteemed and of a fair Character.

Capt. Riddle from Jamaica, informs, that Markets are very dull there, Rum and Sugar both scarce and dear:——Capt. Alboy of this Port, having waited there a long Time for a Cargo, had been obliged to sail to the North side, in hopes of better Success:——Capt. Guilford of this Port was there also.

By Capt. Anderson from Sr. Kitts, we learn, that just before he sailed, three Men were tried there and convicted, for having run away with a Vessel from that Island, but had been pursued and brought back again, and it was thought they would be all hanged.

The Ship Earl of Hertford, Capt. John Pym, of New-York, left the Cape De Verd Islands, with a load of Salt the 18th of August, about Six in the Evening, they met with a violent Thunder Gust, one Clap of which gave the Ship a prodigious Shock; and on trying the Pumps they found she had sprung a Leak;——They continued to labour hard at the Pumps till near 2 o'Clock in the Morning, when finding the Water above the Salt in her Hold, they hoisted out their Boat, into which the Captain and Crew got, consisting of 15 Persons in all, with some Provisions. It rained and was dark towards Morning, when they lost Sight of the Ship, and when Day-light came on, they could see nothing of her, so she must have gone down:—— Two Days after they happily fell in with Capt. Buck, in a Sloop from Saltertuda for New-London, who took them all up; but being short of Provisions, a second Distress threatned them:—— On the 28th they met with Capt. Jones in a Brig from Lisbon to Philadelphia, who took 8 of them on board, and carried them into that Port; and on Friday last, being about 4 Leagues from Barnagat, Capt. Pym, with the Remainder of his Men, took to their Boat again, and arrived here on Saturday last.

Yesterday Morning Capt. Hunt arrived here in 21 Days from South-Carolina, who says, that 14 Days ago, he fell in with Capt. Rogers in a Brig from the Bay for this Port, who had in Company with him a Snow, which he said he had come up with a few Days before, adrift, having neither Man nor Papers on board to discover where she belonged to, her Sails all to Rags, and about 5 Feet Water in her Hold; Capt, Roger's Men soon pump'd her out, and having some spare Sails in the Brig, they had got them up on the Snow, and were bringing her along here.

THE Trustees of the College of New-Jersey, give Notice to the Public, That whereas the Grammar School which used to be kept under the Direction of the President, as a Nursery for the College has been discontinued for some Time, on Account of the long Vacancy of that Office. That the Chair being now filled by the Arrival of the Gentleman last chosen from North-Britain: The School is to be opened under his Direction, precisely on the 7th Day of November next, being the Beginning of the Winter Term in the College. The PRESIDENT, has already provided a Person to teach it; and has undertaken to the Trustees to lay down a Plan of proceeding to the Teacher, to have it under his constant Inspection; and take Care that it be conducted on the very best Principles——This he hopes to be able to do with the greater Success, for that, being acquainted, before he left Home, that such a Thing would be expected from him, he took Care to perfect his Scheme, by conversing with some of the most eminent and approved Teachers in Great-Britain. Parents are desired to take Notice that their Children being properly founded in the Languages, is of the utmost Importance to their subsequent Studies in College being easy, pleasant, and successful—Several reputable Householders in Princeton, have engaged to the Trustees, to take Boarders at as cheap a Rate, it is presumed, as in any Town in this Province, where a public Grammar School is taught: And if the Parents of any of the Children should incline to have them boarded in the College, the Trustees have consented to their being taken in and supplied as the Scholars are. There is a Terrestrial Globe provided for the School, that they may be taught Geography at some Hours of Leisure; they will also have an Hour each Day appropriated to Writing and Arithmetick without any additional Expence, which it is of Importance that they learn early. This Notice is given so long before the Time of opening School, that Parents may have their Children there seasonably; and it is particularly desired that such as have Children to begin the Latin, would send them, if possible, upon the very Day abovementioned; that they may neither suffer any Loss themselves, nor be the Means of retarding others.

POETS CORNER.

Some Time ago we had an Account in the Papers, of a pamper'd Horse, who disturbed some Colonies of Bees, and overturn'd their Hives; in defence of which they furiously attacked him, and stung him to Death; which occasioned the following Lines.

THAT Man who would a Tyrant be,
And strives in wretched Chains to see
The freeborn Subjects of a State,
Should dread to meet this Horse's Fate:
For his Example plainly shows,
Ev'n little Insects can be Foes,
Whose Strength combin'd will far exceed
What's found in one of larger Breed.
An useful Lesson hence I draw,
To be observ'd by each Bashaw,
(Who vainly with his Power swells)
That greatest Strength in Union dwells.
When all oppress'd, as one unite
To vindicate their native Right,
They'll easily the Means contrive
To drive the spoiler from the Hive.

The meadows are reckoned by those in the neighbourhood, who have frequently mowed in them, not inferior to any salt meadow in that part of the country; and some parts thereof, at a very small expence may be made fresh meadow, and to yield good English grass. The timber and wood of every kind in the cedar swamp, is now in great perfection, as the present owner has preserved it, and prevented any of the wood being cut out for near upon 30 years. The conveniencies of landings and easy carriage from the said cedar swamp, are no way inferior to those of any other swamp, on that neck; as a great part of the swamp is bounded by Berry's Creek, and common sloops and wood-boats can go up to the creek to be loaded; and from the other side of the tract the timber may be brought to Hackensack River, by sleding or carting it ope quarter of a mile. That Part of the River, on which this Tract is laid out, begins within two Leagues of the Bay; the Lands are as good as any in America, taking so large a Tract together: The Town Spot and the Islands in its Neighbourhood, are admirably well situated for the carrying on the Cod-Fishery; the Rivers have great Plenty of Salmon. Those who have their Names first entered, will have the Advantage of taking the first Choice of their Lots, as to Situation.

If this Offer to the Public be duly considered, it will be found the most advantageous one that has appeared, especially to Farmers who have large Families of Children, and who have no great Stocks to provide them with; the Terms are intended lower than any other that has been offered for Lands so commodiously situated, purposely to encourage the Settlement of this Country, the Proprietor having other Lands in the Neighbourhood. July 22, 1768. 37 44
